at 0400 on Saturday 24 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry with sunny spells. Warn in west, east cooler.

Today:
The Northern Isles will be rather cloudy with a few showers, especially across Shetland. Otherwise, low cloud and patchy mist and fog in the east soon clearing to leave a dry day with some good spells of sunshine. Light winds.

Tonight:
Continuing rather cloudy across the Northern Isles with a little rain. Elsewhere dry with long clear spells, although patchy low cloud possible in the east and through Central Belt.

Sunday:
A dry and bright day with sunny spells, but rather cloudy at first for Northern Isles. Rather more cloud generally than recent days, best of the sunshine in the west.

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Rather cloudy with outbreaks of showery rain, especially across northeast Monday and southeast Tuesday, but becoming brighter in north later Tuesday. Sunny spells and a few showers Wednesday. Much cooler.
